Cindy's Journal

I live with my two unacceptably behaved step sisters. I do all the chores while they look in the mirror. I always get locked in my room by my evil stepmother. I spend time writing in my journal in my room.

My Stepmother

Her name is Dahlia and she makes me do all the chores.
I hate her. She never lets me out unless I'm done with my chores.
The only thing she cares about is her looks.

The Ugly Step-Sisters

They are ugly and mean. No matter what I do, they're never happy. Druscilla ripped her favorite dress because she eats too much.

Felix

One day when I was cleaning in the attic, I heard a squeak. I saw two scared tiny eyes looking at me. It was a mouse. I named him Felix. He likes to hide in the stepsisters drawers to give them a scare. I know when he does it because you can hear them screaming.

The Fairy Godmother

I wish she was my mom because she is so nice. She makes me look special when I go to balls. She makes nice clothes that last enough time for me to dance with the prince.
