Cindy's Journal

Hi. My name is Cindy. I live in an enormous house! My bed is in the cellar. It is very cold down there. I do all the chores every day! I have mouse friends. I have farm friends, too. They make me feel a lot better. I don't get much food or rest. My stepsisters hate me and I hate them. Ha! Ha! Ha!

Prince

I have a crush on the prince. He loves me. My stepsisters don't know. I always keep it a secret. I always giggle about it. He's seen me twice.

Fairy Godmother

My fairy godmother helps me a lot. She grants me all my wishes except one. I wish I could go to the ball again, but she won't do it. She gets me food, though. I love her.

Step-Mother

My step-mother is mean. She never smiles. She always wears a weird looking dress. She hates rats. She always looked like she sucked on something sour. She's very old. I wish she would die someday.

Felix

Felix is my best rat friend. He spies on my stepsisters! He scares my stepmother! He makes up plans to help me get out, but none have been successful. He'll be my best friend forever.
