

My Private Diary

Cindy's Journal

I write in my journal often. I live with my ugly stepmother and two ugly stepsisters. I do most of the work. I spend a lot of time with my pet mouse. I like sewing very, very much.

My Step-Mother

My step-mother's name is Dahlia, and I hate it. My step-mother only let's me go outside when my chores are done. She said that I'm lucky to have a roof over my head. She only cares about herself. She also only cares about her face.

The Ugly Step-Sisters

I have two stupid step-sisters. They are very ugly and mean. If you try and make them happy, you can't. The other day, Druscilla tore her favorite dress. I had to spend the rest of the day sewing it.

Felix

When I was in the attic cleaning, I heard a squeak. I looked down and saw a mouse. I put it in my pocket. I placed him in my drawer, and he has been my friend ever since.

Prince

I have a little crush on him, maybe more than a little. I do even though he doesn't think I exist. I like how his hair flips. I wonder if I will get to dance with him at the ball.
